

BOOK SIGNING: The Olympian Leap:
The Life and Legacy of Josh Culbreath

Author Cynthia Culbreath will sign books and speak about her book "The Olympian Leap: The Life and Legacy of Josh Culbreath", Wednesday, February 22.

Josh Culbreath was a Norristown native who set national and state low-hurdles records.

As a student at Morgan State College, he was part of the renowned track and field stars known as the "Flying Four".

In 1956 Josh participated in the Olympic Games held in Melbourne, Australia, where he won Bronze.

Books will be available for purchase. Book signing is 6:30; author presentation is 7:00-8:00 p.m. Wednesday, February 22.

This program is free; all are welcome.

For more information contact the Historical Society of Montgomery County: 610-272-0297 or contact@hsmcpa.org